LINEMAN DIES AS RESULT OF COMING IN CONTACT WITH LIVE WIRE

George Busby Falls From Top of Telephone Pole and Dies at Hospital—Young Man Was Well and Favorably Known

George L. Busby, aged 22 years, a telephonist in the employ of the New England Telephone Co., and residing at 25 Wamesit street, was almost instantly killed this morning when he came in contact with a live wire at the top of a pole in front of 1475 Gorham street. After receiving the shock, Busby fell to the ground, a distance of about 25 feet, and despite the efforts of his companions to bring him back to life by means of artificial respiration, he died shortly after his arrival at St. John's hospital.

The accident occurred shortly before 9 o'clock while Busby was testing telephone wires in upper Gorham street. The first his companions knew of the accident was when they saw him drop from the top of a pole to the ground. They worked on him for over half an hour but their efforts were fruitless.

George L. Busby was born in this city and was graduated from the Colby school. He attended high school for a year but discontinued his studies to join the United States navy, in which he served from 1918 to 1921. Upon leaving the service he entered the employ of the New England Telephone Co. to learn the telephone trade and showed exceptional ability along this line.

This morning's accident was particularly sad owing to the fact that the victim's father, George Busby, was killed in an automobile accident on the Lawrence road in Methuen last October.

The young man leaves to mourn

CHIEF SAUNDERS BACK FROM CONVENTION

Chief Edward F. Saunders of the fire department, has returned from a week spent in Greenfield and Bridgeport, Conn., the first three days being spent in the former city at the Elks convention and the last three at the first annual meeting and convention of the New England Fire Chiefs' association, a new organization formed to take in the heads of fire departments in six states.

Convention sessions were broken up by entertainment programs and demonstrations of interest to the chiefs, including hose laying contests and exhibitions of apparatus and appliances. During the convention an extensive exhibition of pumping engines, ladder trucks and accessories was held in the state armory building.

Among the speakers at the convention sessions were J. A. Howland, representing the national board of fire underwriters and John S. Caldwell, chief engineer of the New England Insurance Exchange. Mr. Howland's talk was on "Centralization of Hose Connections and Hydrants," whereby hydrants and connections in all cities would be uniform.

The feature event of the Elks' convention at Greenfield was the unveiling of the "Elk on the Trail," a magnificent bronze statue of an elk erected on a granite base at the foot of the Mohawk trail.

Government Officials Preparing to Act on Six Liners Now in Port

Health Officials Must Take Statement of Masters Regarding Crew Rations

NEW YORK, June 25.—(By the Associated Press)—Two more "wet" liners steamed into port while United States government officials were preparing to move on six other vessels which had docked over the weekend with liquor transported over the three mile limit in defiance of the Treasury department's dry ruling. The latest arrivals were the Anchor liner Tuscania and the French liner Suffren.

The Tuscania, arriving from Glasgow, brought a relatively small store. Seven dozen bottles of Scotch was the largest individual item. Eighty-nine bottles of assorted drinks made up the rest of the cache bearing British government seals.

This Suffren was more heavily laden.

DONNELLY'S NAME GOES TO THE COUNCIL

Mayor John J. Donnelly today sent the name of James E. Donnelly to the city council for the position of assessor, to fill out the unexpired term of Daniel E. Hogan, resigned, which would have terminated January 1, 1924. The appointment will come before the council on the question of confirmation tomorrow night.

While a straight temporary appointment was within the mayor's right, he desires to have the council take part in the process of Mr. Donnelly's appointment and therefore is submitting his name for confirmation as would be the only procedure in case of a re-appointment or the appointment of a new man to replace a board member whose term had expired.

CHOKED TO DEATH WHILE EATING PORK CHOP

Serafin Rilev, 45, a widower of 8 Ward street, choked to death while eating a pork chop in the restaurant of Henry Roeder in Cheever street, near Aiken, shortly after 10 o'clock this morning.

According to a clerk, Leo Rivet, Rilev entered the restaurant with a pork chop purchased in a nearby market and requested that the clerk cook it for him. While he was eating it, he commenced to cough and finally collapsed. Rivet assisted him as far as he was able and hurriedly removed him to the Corporation hospital in his machine, where it was found a piece of meat had become lodged in his throat, causing strangulation. He died within a few minutes after reaching the hospital.

HEAT CONTRIBUTED TO HIS COLLAPSE

The heat wave which threw hot shot into Lowell four days last week, came back today for a return engagement, although the scorching heat record it on its first visit hardly justified an encore.

The excessive heat was a contributing cause to the collapse of an unknown man in Liberty square just before 12 o'clock. The ambulance took him to the Lowell Corporation hospital.

At all points about the city early this afternoon thermometers showed 90 degrees and over. There was a breeze of sorts, but it was not cool enough to cause much relief.

The park department will conduct its sale of South common midway lots in the old council chamber at city hall on Friday morning of this week at 10 o'clock.

PAYMENT OF 1921 REAL ESTATE TAXES

Payments of 1921 real estate taxes, advertised for public sale on July 9, are coming at the office of the city treasurer much slower than usual and it is expected that more than 100 parcels will come under the auctioneer's hammer on the date of sale.

When the delayed-payment list was first published on June 11, 150 parcels of property were included in it. Since that time two additional advertisements have appeared in local papers, but less than 50 delinquents have paid their bills.

The tax law states that at least one week must elapse between the last date of advertising and date of sale, but City Treasurer Fred H. Bourke is allowing two weeks' leeway, in the hope that many of the outstanding bills will be paid.

FINAL PAPERS IN HOMESTEAD SALE

Final papers in the transfer of the old Walter Colman homestead at 14 Waquoit street to Dr. J. H. Roy were signed Saturday evening in the office of E. Gaston Campbell. The property consists of a 15-room house with three-car garage and large barn, as well as 12,500 square feet of land. It was sold in behalf of the Walter Colman heirs and the sale price is said to be in the vicinity of $8,000.

Joseph L. Colman has purchased from E. L. Ladd, the two-story house and 10,000 square feet of land located at 47 Varney street. The sale was effected through the office of St. Pierre & Lasseter, the sale price being in the vicinity of $5,500.

PHONE OFFICIALS CLAIM ONLY MINORITY WILL STRIKE

Union Officials in Boston, However, Declare There Will Be a General Walkout of Operators at the Appointed Hour, 7 O'Clock Tuesday Morning—Mass Meetings to Be Held in Boston Tonight

BOSTON, June 25.—Union leaders who have called a strike of operators in all parts of New England except Connecticut tomorrow morning, are predicting "a clean sweep" of the telephone exchanges but officials of the New England Telephone & Telegraph Co. express the belief that "all but a small minority will stick to their posts."

In an advertisement published in

To The Public

The situation regarding the threatened strike of telephone operators, as we saw it Sunday night, is as follows:

In most of our central offices little or no attention will be paid to the strike order and service on Tuesday will be practically normal.

In some places, we may have to ask the public to limit service requirements to important calls.

In three or four places, we may have to ask the public to refrain from making any but emergency calls for the time being. Calls of this character—for police, fire departments, hospitals, doctors and nurses—we expect to be able to handle notwithstanding the effort of a few leaders to put the public wholly at their mercy.

Our operators, as a rule, have an instinctive loyalty to the service. During Telephone Week, when over 250,000 people visited our central offices, the operators expressed this spirit of loyalty in the words "Our Slogan—Service First."

We believe this spirit still exists and confidently rely upon it, together with the fact that the great body of our operators are out of sympathy with the present attempt to disrupt service, to influence all but a small minority to stick to their posts.

NO CURTAILMENT IN TELEPHONE SERVICE HERE—OPERATORS WILL "CARRY ON" AS USUAL

"Lowell business and professional men have no fear of curtailment in telephone service as a result of the strike to be called by exchanges affiliated with the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers tomorrow morning," said Miss Grace Fuller, president of the Lowell Telephone operators.

Miss Fuller attended the regular meeting of the International Brotherhood of Telephone Workers, held at Young's hotel yesterday, which was addressed by President Dolan, head of the organization.

"It was stated at this meeting," declared President Fuller, "that girls affiliated with the telephone workers' organization would report for work as usual tomorrow morning and would 'carry on' as though nothing had happened. No girl will serve as a strike breaker or will obey any request to leave the exchange to which she is connected to go to another city during the strike," continued the president.

No attempt will be made to ascertain whether or not toll calls are being sent into this city by strike breakers, and as a result, there will be absolutely no curtailment of service from Lowell.

The strike, called by President Julia Collier of the Electrical Workers organization, was characterized as a "spite strike" by Miss Fuller of the Lowell operators.

Miss Anna McElroy, financial secretary of the local exchange, accompanied Miss Fuller to the meeting held in Boston yesterday.

"Nearly cities will not be affected to any considerable extent," said Miss Fuller in reply to a query as to whether operators in Haverhill, Lawrence and other nearby exchanges, were planning to walk out. Lawrence operators are not connected with any union, and the Haverhill operators are affiliated with the International Telephone Workers, an entirely separate organization from the Electrical Workers, which is affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

"Nearby cities will not be affected to any considerable extent," said Miss Fuller in reply to a query as to whether operators in Haverhill, Lawrence and other nearby exchanges, were planning to walk out. Lawrence operators are not connected with any union, and the Haverhill operators are affiliated with the International Telephone Workers, an entirely separate organization from the Electrical Workers, which is affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

Another Step Toward Achieving the Impossible in the Field of Radio

Gradual radio is closing in on the impossible.

When it has overcome the final obstacle, radio will have brought to the ken of humanity such novelties as seeing at a distance and through opaque objects, feeling the presence of the unseen, hearing the slightest sounds, and so on.

A step toward this ultimate goal is an instrument called the "Telehor" invented by Denes Mihaly, 24-year-old chief engineer of the Budapest telephone works in Hungary. According to this youthful inventor, his machine sees at any distance, not photographing the object of action seen, but producing it on a screen as in a film studio.

The Telehor consists of a receiver and a reproducer. The receiver is placed at the scene of action and the reproducer wherever the spectators may be. Both may be connected by wire or wireless.

In less than one tenth of a second, explains Mihaly, the object "seen"—as through a movie camera—by the receiver, is reproduced on the screen of the reproducer. Still or moving, the object is shown to the spectators miles away.

Greater even than this—and what it promises to be—will be the invention that can discern the slightest sound or movement, at any distance. For with the application of such instruments, secrecy and underhanded diplomacy among nations could not exist for long.

Just as broadcasting stations can be heard from one nation to another—even across the Atlantic—because of their tremendous power, stations with extremely short wave lengths and low power ought to be discerned by powerful receiving sets. The only obstacle to discovering such secret methods of radio communication may be their use of extremely complicated code systems, such as have already been invented and applied. Yet radio promises the achievement of so many hitherto impossible wonders, that even the decoding of such system may not be placed beyond its scope.

That is for use after war has begun. The real benefit of radio comes through its use as a war preventive, as a means toward bringing nationalities together in a more amicable relationship.

This is being brought about even today by the broadcasting of concerts that are heard across oceans and vast territories. Thus England and France learn more of America, through its radio broadcast music and lectures. And America learns more of those countries.

Progress toward this sort of relationship is rapid. The western hemisphere is bound together by radio, as well as its Pan-American agreements.

are generally made of Cedar—but oftentimes Cedar Chests hold more than "Hopes." For, of all the way to destroy moths, cedar has proven best. After a year of rigid tests the United States Government determined that cedar was the most effective enemy of moths. It disposed of moths that were present and prevented others from coming.

England, France, Germany, Holland and Scandinavia have been broadcasting music and lectures under certain conditions, not as freely as here, but with promise toward greater popularity. Now Italy has decided to take up broadcasting, although under similar restrictions as exist in Germany and the other European countries.

Radio cannot be confined to a single nation, and so the people of one country will be able to learn the productions of another to learn about the other nations around them and to understand them better.

Thus will peace and prosperity be assured.

BOY DROWNED IN CORBETT'S POND

Edward P. Mill, a 15-year-old boy, was drowned in Corbett's pond last Saturday afternoon at the annual picnic of the Eliot Union church Sunday school.

The victim, who is the son of Thomas Mill of 10 Kirk street, a sexton at St. Anne's church, was canoeing with a boy friend when the canoe upset. The Mill boy was unable to swim and grasped the other boy around the neck. The second boy was barely able to break away and gain the shore himself.

As the main body of the picnickers were at the ball field, there was no help in the immediate vicinity of the accident. Two men who were fishing on the pond heard the boys' screams and started immediately for the spot, but before they reached there the Mill boy had gone down for the last time. Several young men started diving for the body but it was an hour and a half before it was brought to the shore. The doctors who have cottages at the pond worked over the boy for some time and also used a resuscitator but to no effect.

The body was brought to this city by Undertaker W. Herbert Blake. The boy leaves, besides his father, three sisters, Devina, Elinor and Margaret.

HELD FEAST OF ST. JOHN OBSERVANCE

The feast of St. John was observed with a solemn high mass at St. Jean Baptiste church yesterday morning. The service, which was very largely attended was conducted at 11 o'clock, the celebrant of the mass being Rev. Emile Bolduc, O.M.I., who was ordained to the priesthood a couple of weeks ago. He was assisted by Rev. L. G. Bachand, O.M.I., as deacon and Very Rev. J. E. Turcotte, O.M.I., as sub-deacon. The sermon was given by Rev. Antoine A. Amyot, O.M.I., dean of the Oblate clergy of this city.

The choir, augmented for the occasion, rendered under the direction of R. E. Pepin, who also presided at the organ. Rinck's mass, the soloists being Miss Vincent, Mrs. Maria Jacques, Arthur G. Leveille, Dr. G. E. Caisse, Miss Blanche Larue, Wilfrid Jacques, Arthur Perreault, Mrs. Antoinette Baudouin, Arthur Paquin, Miss Stella Latour, Mrs. Edith Pepin. At the offertory Mrs. H. A. Archambault sang Dubois' "Panis Angelicus."

SERMON AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

"The Allurements and Dangers of Wrong Doing," was the topic selected by Dr. Babcock, who preached at the First Baptist church last evening to a large congregation. The speaker used the story of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde for the background of his remarks.

"Many who commit gross sins, fail to reckon the disgrace and punishment of their wrong doing," said the speaker. "There is a thrill in doing right and a great satisfaction in the realization that righteousness has triumphed." Indifference and carelessness about religion were condemned by Dr. Babcock, because they destroy our better interests and are fatal to salvation.

Rev. Dr. Heath at the morning services gave a concise report of the recent Atlantic convention and the program of the Baptist denomination as discussed there.

BROKE THE RECORD SAYS E. RAYMOND

Declares Tanlac Did More For Him Than Any Medicine He Ever Used

"It has been my custom to take a good tonic every spring, so two years ago I tried Tanlac, and it gave me the greatest building up I ever had," is the statement of Elizard Raymond, well known farmer, residing at 185 Nashua street, Fall River, Mass.

"I had been almost a confirmed dyspeptic, had scarcely any appetite, and a great deal of the time hardly a thing in the way of food appealed to me. I had terrible headaches, my nerves were all unstrung. I could get no restful sleep and was so weak and run-down I had little comfort day or night."

"But the Tanlac treatment switched things right around for me, ended my stomach trouble. In addition, I gained ten pounds and have held that gain ever since. Tanlac gives me all the strength I need for my work, and keeps me feeling fit as a fiddle. It certainly is a splendid medicine."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 35 million bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills are Nature's own remedy for constipation. For sale everywhere—Adv.

Fire Causes $80,000 Loss at Hampton Beach--Lowell Man Loses Auto

GARAGE RUINS AND WRECKED AUTOS

HAMPTON BEACH, N. H., June 25.—A garage housing 22 automobiles, the Wilbert hotel and two cottages were destroyed, while two other cottages were badly scorched by fire at Hampton Beach early yesterday. It was the fourth serious conflagration at the popular summer resort in a decade and resulted in property damage to the amount of $80,000.

Joseph S. Baker of 205 Appleton street, Lowell, whose automobile was burned, was the only loser from that city.

Fire apparatus from six cities and towns fought successfully to prevent the fire from spreading to the business section of the beach, one block of which was in close proximity. The burned area was one block south of that which was wiped out in the fires of Sept. 23, 1915, and June 26, 1921, exactly two years ago yesterday. At that time fire destroyed seven hotels, 13 cottages, a large business block, theatre, dance hall, garage, two apartment houses and many stores.

Yesterday's fire started in the garage at the foot of C street owned by Mrs. Laura M. Bristol. It was discovered shortly after 2:30 a. m. The blaze quickly spread to the Wilbert hotel and crossed over to Marsh avenue and destroyed two cottages there, also owned by Mrs. Bristol.

The Wilbert is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Miller and in the house at the time were 10 guests who were forced to grab personal belongings and flee in their sleeping garments.

It was impossible to save any of the 22 automobiles stored in the Bristol garage and all were burned where they stood. The night watchman broke through a window to escape the flames, which were aided in their rapid spread by a series of minor gasoline explosions.

BURDENED WITH A HEAVY HEART

President Harding in Grief Over Yesterday's Auto Tragedy in Denver

But He is Compelled by Lack of Time to Continue on His Scheduled Route

DENVER, Colo., June 25.—(By the Associated Press) Burdened with grief over yesterday's tragedy which resulted in the death of one member of his party, severed the life cord of a Denver host and ended with two persons identified with his visit here, in a hospital suffering from injuries. President Harding today faced his program with a heavy heart but compelled by the necessity and lack of additional time, to carry on as the original plans for his stay required. These included a parade through the city, a greeting of school children at the state house, a formal address at the auditorium and a visit to Cheyenne, Wyo., later in the day where another address was to be delivered.

Before commencing the day's duties, however, the chief executive obtained reports from the hospital as to the condition of Donald A. Craig, manager of the New York Herald's Washington bureau, and of Thomas F. Dawson of Denver, both of whom were injured when the automobile in which they were riding yesterday, plunged over a 15 foot embankment and killed Sumner Curtis of Washington, D. C., a representative of the republican national committee, and Tommie French of Denver, who was driving the machine as host to the visitors of the presidential party. Mr. Curtis and Mr. Craig were members of the party and personal friends of Mr. Dawson.

President Harding was encouraged by the reports he received and instructed the hospital authorities to keep him advised concerning the condition of Mr. Craig and Mr. Dawson as he continued his tour to Cheyenne, Salt Lake, Utah, and other points along the route to Alaska. There was some indication that a change would be made in the program beginning after the Cheyenne visit and that the proposed trip into Zion Park, Utah, would be abandoned, the party motorizing from Ogden to Salt Lake.

Henry C. Wallace, secretary of agriculture, joined the party in Denver, and will go through the Alaskan itinerary with the president.

GAVE INTERESTING LECTURE ON "ARCADIA"

Miller Bellefontaine, a retired business man of this city, entertained a large audience at the Centerville Social club yesterday afternoon with a lecture on "Arcadia." The audience was composed of members of L'Assomption society, all of whom are Acadians, and all listened attentively to the talk, which proved most interesting.

Mr. Bellefontaine, who is a native of Acadia, and who has made several voyages to France, where his people originated, proved to be well versed on his topic. He reviewed the history of the Acadians from their beginning of prominence in France up to the present date, telling of their exile from France by the British and their landing in what is now known as New Brunswick, Canada. Mr. Bellefontaine was introduced to his audience by Pierre Leblanc, president general of L'Assomption society.

CAR CRASHED INTO TREE

A large touring car of Vermont registry, collided with a telegraph pole near the old Bridges' place in Tewksbury late last night and was badly damaged. Officer Kelley of the Tewksbury police force was notified of the accident and when he arrived on the scene there was no one near the machine. He was unable to get the owner's name and while looking over the car a tow car arrived from Hoover's Highland garage and towed the damaged car to Lowell. At Hoover's garage today they were unable to give the name of the owner of the machine, but said that at the time of the accident, two machines, one driven by a Mr. Peterson of Maine, and the other, the damaged car, were coming towards Lowell when the driver of the first car became blinded by a

Third Generation is Using Syrup Pepsi

No other laxative can replace Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsi. Their parents were given it by their parents; the grandparents are using it today.

It is the one laxative ideally suited to all the family, safe for the little ones, effective in grownups, so compounded that elderly people, who are constantly forced to take a laxative because the intestinal muscles are weakening, find increased dosage unnecessary. This wonderful constipation remedy has been used continuously for 30 years, and over 10 million bottles are now sold annually, the largest selling family laxative in the world. The cost averages but a cent a dose. Every druggist sells it, and under a guarantee to do as claimed or your money will be refunded.

Millions of carefully conducted homes are never without a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsi. Syrup Pepsi empties the bowels more cleanly and without any danger.

Thousands of parents are asking themselves, "Where can I find a trustworthy laxative that anyone in the family can use when constipated?" I am happy to say that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsi will gladly provide a liberal free sample bottle, sufficient for an adequate test. Write me where to send it. Address Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 515 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois. Do it now!

Mr. J. B. Belk of Shaw, Miss., relies on it entirely to keep his children in health, and Mrs. Catherine Connolly of Jersey City, N. J., declares that not only herself but all her neighbors and friends use it and tell others about it. There is scarcely a day that someone in a family does not need it for constipation, flatulence, auto-intoxication, biliousness, intestinal poisoning, headaches, colic and cramps, and to break up fevers and colds.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsi is a scientifically-balanced compound of Egyptian senna with pepsin and pleasant-tasting aromatics. The formula is on the package. As the popularity of this natural vegetable laxative increases, the public discards the harsher physics like calomel, coal-tar in candy form, salt waters and powders. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsi empties the bowels more cleanly and without any danger.

GIANTS ONCE MORE HOLD SAFE MARGIN ON TOP RUNG

Sixth Straight Victory for McGraw's Clan Yesterday—Luque's Winning Streak of Seven Games Broken by Cubs—Athletics Pass Up Chance to Close up on Yanks—White Sox Win in Ninth Inning Rally

NEW YORK. June 25.—Back to a safe margin in first place come the New York Giants. They won their sixth consecutive game yesterday, 6 to 3, making it three straight from the Braves. Previously they had won three straight from St. Louis. Pittsburgh also won over St. Louis, 5 to 4, but it seems as though the Pirates are getting farther from the Reds rather than keeping after the world's champions.

Chicago's steady playing is less normal. The Cubs got near to the Reds by giving Adait Luque, the Havana twirler, his second defeat of the season in 11 starts and broke his winning streak of seven games.

St. Peter's Cadets Defeat Belmonts in Second Game of Series

In the second game of the series for the amateur championship of the city, the St. Peter's Cadets, with Francis Roosman on the mound, yesterday defeated the Belmonts for the second consecutive time, the score being 7 to 1.

The game was played on the South course in the presence of a large number of fans. Roosman pitched effectively for the Cadets and led the visiting Belmonts down with eight hits.

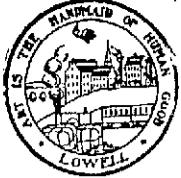

At Newbury last Saturday afternoon, the Belmonts had their annual meeting of the State ordinary team, the score of 16 to 4. The feature of the game was the pitching of Nettie and Marie for the Cadets and the hitting of Freddie Crow who batted over home runs, a single and a sacrifice. The bunting of Old Day and Roosman for the winners, and Hickey for the losers was also noticeable. Yesterday's score was:

Jack Daw's Adventures. Chapter 8

"Everything will be all right if you keep away from my father, the bad giant," said Trixie. Then she took Jack to the foot of a long vine ladder and told him to climb up. "At the top you will find a big basket," she explained. "When you crawl into it I'll swing you over to the woods."

Jack soon reached the basket and climbed in. He looked far down below and saw Flip, Trixie, Hoppy, the kangaroo, and the leopard pussy cat looking up at him. "Hang on tight," shouted Trixie. And then Jack went flying through the air in this basket which was tied to a large vine.

Almost instantly he was carried into another clump of high vines and the basket stopped. Jack crawled out and decided that he was supposed to climb down these vines. Just as he had nearly reached the ground a large hand reached out and pulled the vines up by the roots. (Continued.)

IN HER HAND SHE HELD A LETTER

The Twins helped the Ragties all day, so please return us soon as possible, nice little fellows that they are.

Yours lovingly,

"THE FAIRY QUEEN."

"Oh, I'm sorry," said Nancy quickly to Mister Tatters. "But if we don't need us any longer we'd better go."

"That's all right," said Mister Tatters.

"We're all through with everything and you've been ever so kind. Well never forget you."

"Then we'll say goodbye," said Nancy, turning to bid farewell to the other Ragties. To her surprise they had all disappeared. But only for an instant. One by one they came back, this time all dressed up in their new clothes.

"We'll wear them until next spring," said Rag Tag proudly.

Soon the good-byes were over and the Twins followed Nimble Toes up the maple steps.

And so, no tears, when you look for Ragties in the woods, he may be in tatters, or dressed in his Sunday best. I'm sure I don't know which.

Dream Brings Rotary to 26 Countries

By N.E.A. Service

ST. LOUIS, June 25.—A Chicago lawyer, with humanitarian impulses, called three of his friends into conference with him at his office one winter night.

Before them he unfolded a vision that haunted him night and day: a vision of a happier and better world.

People, he told them, needed some doctrine of service, making dynamic the static, ethical principle of the golden rule.

Why not help them draft such a philosophy? Why not pledge themselves to abide by it in their different walks of life?

Would they help him? They did.

One of the three was a coal dealer, another a clothing operator, and the third, a merchant tailor.

That was 18 years ago—Feb. 22, 1905. The men went out and interested others in their creed.

And that was the beginning of Rotary.

iden Spreads

They called it "Rotary" because in those early days members met in rotation in their offices and shops.

Three years later the idea spread to San Francisco. Then the germ descended in other parts of the country. The "National association" was formed in 1910.

And today it's Rotary International. It's the organization with which all Rotary clubs throughout the world are affiliated. It's an organization of 1420 subsidiary clubs, with approximately 20,000 members in 26 countries.

Delegates from all these nations are gathering in St. Louis for their annual world meeting, June 19-22. From all parts of the globe they're coming.

WAGE INCREASE IN HAVERHILL

WILL HONOR MR. MOLLOY

Approximately 1000 Girl Employees in Shoe Factories to Benefit

Advance, Which is Voluntary, Will Amount to About One Dollar Per Week

HAVERHILL, June 25.—A voluntary wage increase was granted today by the Haverhill Shoe Manufacturers' association to the women packers. Approximately 1000 girls benefit by the advance which is $1 a week, effective the first working week in July. The present wage is $19 and $21.50. The operations affected are lining-in, dressing, trimming, staining, embossing, stamping and mending.

The increase was effected at a conference today between price committees of the Manufacturers' association and the Shoe Workers' Protective Union. The agreement existing between the two organizations specifies that "there shall be no reduction in wages," but the manufacturers agreed to open the agreement for a readjustment in this instance. The increase will be effective in every factory in the city, as much as the factories outside the association have agreed to abide by the price paid in the association plants.

HUGH J. MOLLOY

Superintendent of Schools to Be Guest of Honor at Testimonial Dinner

Friends of Hugh J. Molloy, superintendent of schools, will honor him this week as he rounds out two score years as an educator. He will be the guest of honor at a testimonial dinner to be given in Liberty hall on Friday evening, arrangements for which are in the hands of a committee composed of Co. G Associates, with which State Guard organization Mr. Molloy served during the Boston police strike.

It seems particularly fitting that such an honor should be conferred upon one who has stood for the best there is in citizenship, education and work. The increase which is voluntary, which is $1 a week, effective the first working week in July. The present wage is $19 and $21.50. The operations affected are lining-in, dressing, trimming, staining, embossing, stamping and mending.

The increase was effected at a conference today between price committees of the Manufacturers' association and the Shoe Workers' Protective Union.

The agreement existing between the two organizations specifies that "there shall be no reduction in wages," but the manufacturers agreed to open the agreement for a readjustment in this instance. The increase will be effective in every factory in the city, as much as the factories outside the association have agreed to abide by the price paid in the association plants.

George Busby Falls From Top of Telephone Pole and Dies at Hospital—Young Man Was Well and Favorably Known

George L. Busby, aged 22 years, a splicer in the employ of the New England Telephone Co., and residing at 28 Wameau street, was almost instantly killed this morning when he came in contact with live wire at the top of a pole in front of 1475 Gorham street. After receiving the shock, Busby fell to the ground, alway, in which he served from 1918 to 1921. Upon leaving the service he entered the employ of the New England Telephone Co. to learn the splicing trade, and showed exceptional ability along this line.

This morning's accident was particularly sad owing to the fact that the victim's father, George Busby, was killed in an automobile accident on the Lawrence road in Methuen last October.

LEVIATHAN TO HAVE RECORD LIST

NEW YORK, June 25.—By the Associated Press, Albert E. Lasker, retiring chairman of the United States Shipping board, predicted after a conference with shipping board officials today that the reconditioned Leviathan, which returned yesterday from her trial trial trip with a world speed record hung on her bow, would sail on her maiden transatlantic voyage July 4 with "more money in passages" than any ship that ever left this port.

To The Public

The situation regarding the threatened strike of telephone operators, as we saw it Sunday night, is as follows:

In most of our central offices little or no attention will be paid to the strike order and service on Tuesday will be practically normal.

In some places, we may have to ask the public to limit service requirements to important calls.

In three or four places, we may have to ask the public to refrain from making any but emergency calls for the time being. Calls of this character—for police, fire departments, hospitals, doctors and nurses—we expect to be able to handle notwithstanding the effort of a few leaders to put the public wholly at their mercy.

Our operators, as a rule, have an instinctive loyalty to the service. During Telephone Week, when over 250,000 people visited our central offices, the operators expressed this spirit of loyalty in the words "Our Slogan—Service First."

We believe this spirit still exists and confidently rely upon it, together with the fact that the great body of our operators are out of sympathy with the present attempt to disrupt service, to influence all but a small minority to stick to their posts.

CHIEF SAUNDERS BACK FROM CONVENTION

Chief Edward F. Saunders of the fire department, has returned from a week spent in Greenfield and Bridgeport, Conn., the first three days being spent in the former city at the Elks convention and the last three at the first annual meeting and convention of the New England Fire Chiefs' association, a new organization formed to take in the heads of fire departments in six states.

Convention sessions were broken up by entertainment programs and demonstrations of interest to the chiefs, including hose laying contests and exhibitions of apparatus and appliances. During the convention an extensive exhibition of pumping engines, ladder trucks and accessories was held in the state armory building.

Among the speakers at the convention sessions were J. A. Howland, representing the national board of fire underwriters, and John S. Caldwell, chief engineer of the New England Insurance Exchange. Mr. Howland's talk was on "Centralization of Hose Connections and Hydrants" whereby hydrants and connections in all cities would be uniform.

The feature event of the Elks' convention at Greenfield was the unveiling of the "Elks on the Trail," a majestic bronze statue of an elk created on a granite base at the foot of the Mohawk trail.

Broken Axle Causes Two-Car Train to Plunge From "L" Structure in Brooklyn Onto Two Automobiles in the Street—Death Toll May Reach 11 at Least—Two Score Injured

NEW YORK, June 25.—At least six persons were killed and more than a score were pinned in wreckage when a Brooklyn-Manhattan transit elevated train, bound for Manhattan, toppled today from the structure at Fifth and Flatbush avenues, falling on two automobiles. The train comprised two cars. After the first car struck, the second peeled off on top of it. Fire apparatus and all available ambulances were rushed to the scene. Police reserves were called to handle a crowd running into the thousands which hastily assembled. How many persons were in the two crushed automobiles was not known as rescuers attacked the wreckage.

Telephone calls brought reports from the Long Island College Hospital nearby that two men and three women had been carried there seriously injured.

The Holy Family hospital reported one dead and eight injured there.

NEW YORK, June 25.—By the Associated Press—Two more "wet" liners steamed into port while United States government officials were preparing to move on six other vessels which had docked over the week-end with their transports over the three-mile circuit in defiance of the Treasury department's dry ruling. The latest arrivals were the Andrea Doria, Tuscania and the French liner Suffren.

The Tuscania, arriving from Glasgow, brought a relatively small store.

Seven dozen bottles of Scotch was the largest individual item. Eighty-nine city council for the position of assessor to fill out the unexpired term of Daniel E. Hogan, resigned, which would have terminated January 1, 1924. The appointment will come before the council on the question of confirmation tomorrow night.

While a straight temporary appointment was within the mayor's right, he desires to have the council take part in the process of Mr. Hogan's appointment and therefore is continuing his name for confirmation as would be the only procedure in case of a re-appointment or the appointment of a new man to replace a board member whose term had expired.

Another Step Toward Achieving the Impossible in the Field of Radio

Gradually radio is closing in on the impossible.

When it has overcome the final obstacle, radio will have brought to the ken of humanity such nowaday "impossible" feats as seeing at a distance and through opaque objects, feeling the presence of the unseen, hearing the slightest sounds, and so on.

A step toward this ultimate goal is an instrument called the "Telehor" invented by Denes Mihaly, 28-year-old chief engineer of the Budapest telephone works in Hungary. According to this youthful inventor, his machine sees at any distance, not photographing the object or action seen, but by producing it on a screen as in a film studio.

The Telehor consists of a receiver and a reproducer. The receiver is placed at the scene of action and the reproducer wherever the spectators may be. Both may be connected by wire or wireless.

In less than one-tenth of a second, explains Mihaly, the object "seen"—as through a movie camera—by the receiver, is reproduced on the screen of the reproducer. Still or moving, the object is shown to the spectators miles away.

Greater even than this—and what it promises to be—will be the invention that can discern the slightest sound or movement, at any distance. For, with the application of such instruments, secret and undeclared diplomacy among nations could not exist for long.

Just as broadcasting stations can be heard from one nation to another, even across the Atlantic—because of their tremendous power, stations with extremely short wave lengths and low power might be discovered by powerful receiving sets. The only obstacle to discovering such secret methods of radio communication may be their use of extremely complicated code systems, such as have already been invented and applied. Yet radio promises the achievement of so many hitherto impossible wonders, that even the decoding of such system may not be placed beyond its scope.

That is for us, after war has begun. The real benefit of radio comes through its use as a war preventative, as a means toward bringing nationalities together in a more amicable relationship.

This is being brought about even today by the broadcasting of concerts that are heard across oceans and vast territories. Thus England and France learn more of America, through its radio broadcast music and lectures. And America learns more of those countries.

Progress toward this sort of relationship is rapid. The western Hemisphere is bound together by radio, as well as its Pan-American agreements.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

RIALTO THEATRE

Thomas Meighan, the screen's most popular leading man, heads an unusual, yet good picture program at the Rialto Monday and Tuesday. Meighan appears in "The Conquest of Canaan," adapted from Booth Tarkington's story of the same name. The theme is similar to that of "Black Home and Broken" in which Meighan scored such a tremendous hit. He is seen in the role of a small town youth, who is railroaded to the penitentiary as a boy on well. But when he returns he shows them what he is made of.

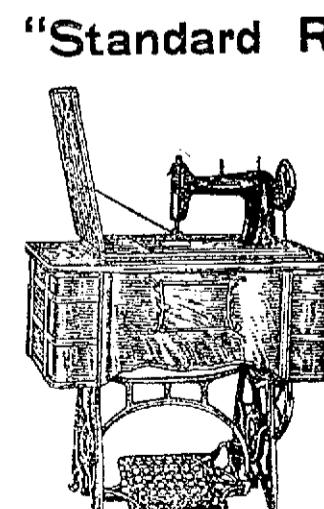

The added attraction is "Bachelor Apartments," billed as the fastest, funniest five reel comedy ever offered to movie fans. Georgia Hopkins is the leading player. The other features are "The Merchant of Venice," with Larry Semon in the title role, and "The Hands of Nara," a story of mysticism, with Clara Kimball Young in the leading role.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

"The Little Church Around the Corner," one of the best plays for the stage ever produced, has now been adapted in screen form and is being shown at the Merrimack Square Theatre as the feature of the evening. The girl, Connie Windsor, is the featured star. The other feature is "The Hands of Nara," a story of mysticism, with Clara Kimball Young in the leading role.

THE STRAND

"Ensign Meant," with Alice Lake and Milton Sills, is the second feature, and "Golf" as played by Gene Sarazen is the third feature. important calls. In three or four places, we may have to ask the public to refrain from making any but emergency calls for the time being. Calls of this character—for police, fire department, hospitals, doctors and nurses—will expect to be able to handle notwithstanding the effort of a few leaders to put the public wholly at their mercy.

"Our operators as a rule have an instinctive loyalty to the service. During Telephone week, when over 250,000 persons visited our central offices, the operators expressed this spirit of loyalty in the words: 'Our slogan, Service First.' We believe this spirit still exists and confidently rely upon it, together with the fact that the great body of our operators are out of sympathy with the present attempt to disrupt service to influence all but a small minority to stick to their posts."

The official order for the strike sent out yesterday by the regional council of the Telephone Operators' department, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, which is affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, instructs night girls to leave the exchanges upon completion of their duties tomorrow morning and 6 a.m. girls not to report for work. The girls are warned that there must be "absolutely no disturbance or interference with the property of the company."

The order says that the strike was called when all other measures had failed "to effect favorable consideration of our proposals" for a wage increase and shorter working hours. It adds:

"The immediate setting of the strike date became imperative because of the intimidation being practiced by the company. This strike cannot fail to be completely victorious. Many forces are at work seeking to destroy your unionism."

septic is shown. For instance, 1 to 20 means one drop of Zonite to which twenty drops of water were added. In the second and third columns is shown the number of germs that were still alive after being exposed to the solution indicated in the first column for five minutes, and fifteen minutes respectively.

The result of the test is as follows: One drop of Zonite added to 150 drops of water was applied to millions of bacteria coated with saliva. In five minutes not one was left alive. Peroxide diluted only 1 to 5 made no impression whatsoever on the bacteria; they were actually multiplied while exposed to the solution.

We publish above a table which is the result of a germicidal test between Zonite and Peroxide. The test was made by a bacteriological laboratory of international reputation.

We select Peroxide because it has slightly more germicidal power than most of the non-poisonous antiseptics heretofore in general use.

Saliva from the human mouth is filled with bacteria or germ life. An antiseptic to be of any real value should render saliva sterile (kill all germ life) even when the antiseptic is highly diluted with water. The power of an antiseptic is judged by the amount of water that can be added to it without destroying its ability to kill germs. The table shown herewith gives the results obtained when Zonite and Peroxide are used against the bacteria contained in human saliva.

Now study the table and let us see what we find. In the first column the amount of water that was added to the amount of antiseptic.

NOTE: Pyorrhea is the scourge of civilization. It is attacking three out of five people who have reached middle age. Zonite is a new and powerful weapon for combating this disease. If you wish to guard yourself from Pyorrhea, see your dentist regularly, throw away scented, pleasant tasting mouth washes and use Zonite at least once a day.

SUMMER SCHEDULE OF MASSES IN CATHOLIC CHURCHES

The summer schedule of masses began effective in a number of the Catholic churches of the city yesterday, while the remaining churches will adopt the arrangement next Sunday. Instead of the usual high mass at 11 o'clock, a low mass will be celebrated until further notice.

In St. Peter's church at the 2:30 o'clock mass yesterday, members of the Children of Mary sodality received communion in a body. The high mass at 11 o'clock was attended by the members of St. Anthony de Padua society, escorted by St. Peter's Cadets. The presider was Rev. John M. Mahan, who spoke in Italian.

At the 1 o'clock mass next Sunday, Very Rev. Daniel J. Kilkenny, Ph.D., V.F., will bestow the apostolic benediction permission for this having been granted to the pope during the pastor's recent visit to Rome.

Next Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock there will be a regular meeting of the Immaculate Conception sodality.

The Children of Mary sodality received communion in a body at the 7:30 o'clock mass in the Sacred Heart church yesterday. The high mass at 11 o'clock was sung by Rev. John H. Kennedy, O.M.I., recently ordained and who sang his first solemn high mass in St. Peter's church last Sunday. The pastoral committee in charge of the country holly party will meet this evening for the purpose of developing plans. The Ward 2 Improvement association will hold a special meeting in the school hall next Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

At all the masses in St. Michael's church yesterday, it was announced that the summer schedule of masses will go into effect next Sunday. There will be no high mass but a low mass at 11 o'clock will be followed by benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

A meeting of the general committee in charge of St. Columba's garden party, which is to be held on the church grounds on June 28, 29 and 30, will be held this evening in the parish hall. Elaborate plans are being made to make this party, the first in several years, the best ever.

Parishioners of St. Margaret's church are anxiously awaiting the opening of the annual lawn party in the Rasten, next Thursday afternoon. The party will be held afternoon and evening. A meeting of the committee in charge will be held next Wednesday evening, at which final plans will be made. Next Sunday

SIX GANGSTERS HELD

Two More Arrested in Court-room During Arraignment of Sextet

WOONSOCKET, R. I., June 25.—Six alleged gangsters from Pawtucket were held in $7500 bail each in district court here today for holdup of a lunch car in which the proprietor and his helper were badly beaten up. Two other men, believed to have been members of the gang, were arrested in the court room during the arraignment of the sextet.

The attack occurred at 2 a.m. yesterday morning when the patrons of the lunch car were threatened with revolvers and six dollars were taken from the till. The gang fled in an automobile, but six were arrested later in a Pawtucket lunch room and brought here under heavy guard. The attacked police declare the men captured are known to them as desperate characters.

TORCHLIGHT DANCE WEIRD EXHIBITION

TAUNTON, Mass., June 26.—The recent inauguration of the Federated States was marked by a remarkable series of exhibition dances. These included tribal dances in which 24 of the hill tribes of Burma participated, as well as the famous animal and bird dances of the Shan.

The entertainment took place in a specially built arena with over 500 spectators in attendance. Brilliant and unusual lighting was a feature of the occasion. The torchbearers leading to the arena were lined with huge lamps in the shape of long blossoms. The governor, Sir Harcourt Barker, was escorted to his place by 200 torch-bearers, carrying torches ten feet long and one foot thick, made of bamboo and pine chips.

In the opening of the arena some of the torches used were as much as 40 feet in height and required 50 or 60 men to carry them. Each torch was followed by several musicians who beat time and played other weird instruments.

Of the tribal dances those of the Palaungs proved the most popular. The Palaungs are noted for the extreme rigidity they swear. The Arakanese men about the neck, arms and legs of one woman often weigh over 100 pounds. Those of the neck, amounting to about 10 pounds, are considered the most important. Their purpose is to indicate the neck, a man starts wearing such rings from childhood, and the neck stretches; additional rings are added. The woman who has the longest neck is considered the most beautiful and the need to be desired as a wife.

The Shan states, rich in agricultural and mineral resources, are in the northern part of Burma.

'BROKE THE RECORD SAYS E. RAYMOND

Declares Tanlac Did More For Him Than Any Medicine He Ever Used

"It has been my custom to take a good tonic every spring, so two years ago I tried Tanlac, and it gave me the greatest building up I ever had," is the statement of Elzard Raymond, well-known farmer, residing at 165 Nashua street, Fall River, Mass.

"I had been almost a confirmed dyspeptic, had scarcely any appetite, and a great deal of the time hardly anything in the way of food appealed to me. I had terrible headaches, my nerves were all unstrung, I could get no restful sleep and was as weak and run-down I had little comfort day or night."

"But the Tanlac treatment switched things right around for me, ended my stomach trouble, and in addition I gained ten pounds and have had that gain ever since. Tanlac gives me all the strength I need for my work and keeps me feeling fit as a fiddle. It certainly is a splendid medicine."

Tanlac is for sale by all good drugists. Accept no substitute. Over 30 million bottles sold.

of Governor Smith

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., June 25.—Walter S. Ward, wealthy tobacco son, was an early arrival at the Westchester county courthouse today, when the second grand jury investigating the slaying of Ward by Vincent S. Lettieri of Haverhill, Mass., got under way. One hundred tobacco workers on hand, on which the jury commissioners were to draw a panel of 52, to sit at 10 o'clock with Vincent Marotta acting as chief marshal. on the South common in front of the society hall.

There were about 150 members of the society in line and they were escorted by the St. Peter's Cadets. Forming the lines in Summer street, the parades marched through South Middlesex and South street to St. Peter's church.

The mass was celebrated at 11 o'clock by Rev. Dr. H. H. Bergman, while the sermon was delivered by Rev. Dr. M. M. McMenamin. The pastor, Rev. Dr. J. K. Kehoe, V.F. addressed the members of the society, complimenting them for their splendid showing, saying he was proud to see a group of members of his parish observe the feast of St. Anthony who had participated so much to the cause of charity. He urged them to keep up their relations with the church and wished the society success and prosperity.

At the close of the service the members of the society marched to their hall, where a sumptuous dinner was served, the roast being followed by roast parsnip soup, which was prepared by Vincent Marotta, and which included several interesting literary numbers.

The committee in charge of the event consisted of Vincent Marotta, chairman, Elmer Sundin, John J. L. Lietz, Edward McMenamin, V. P. and Ruth F. F. F.

ARTIFICIAL WOOD THAT WON'T ROT

CHRISTIANIA, June 25.—By using a mixture of 50 per cent sawdust with chalk and chemicals, and subjecting these to very heavy pressure, a scientist of Kullerbund says he has succeeded in making artificial wood possessing all the qualities of genuine timber.

It will not deteriorate in water, and on account of the chemicals it contains, it is impervious to rot and only burns at a temperature much higher than that at which real timber ignites.

FIREWORKS DISPLAY CONTRACT AWARDED

The American Fire Works Co. of Boston has been awarded the contract to furnish and put on the fireworks display as a part of the municipal celebration of the Fourth this year. As usual the display will take place on the South common on the night of the Fourth.

The program as forwarded to the mayor includes 24 set pieces and a quantity of bombs and rockets. It will cost $1000. The American Co. was selected after consideration had been given to half a dozen programs submitted.

The exhibition will begin at 9:30 p.m. and will be preceded by a concert by the 86th F. A. band. In the afternoon the Lowell Military band will give a concert on the common from 2 to 5 p.m.

Each ringing morning and evening will be a part of the day's program, as in other years and it is possible that Battery B will fire gun salutes from Fort Hill, although this feature has not been arranged.

The park department will conduct its sale of South common midway lots in the old concert chamber at city hall on Friday morning of this week at 10 o'clock.

CONCRETE OFFER MADE BY MEXICO

MEXICO CITY, June 25.—(Reuter)—President Alvaro Obregon was understood to be considering the formula for the solution of the sub-soil question as drawn up by the reorganization commission last week, the Mexican commission today planned to present a concrete offer covering the situation which is the remaining obstacle before the conference.

OBSEVANCE OF FEAST OF ST. ANTHONY

A street parade, church service and dinner and reception at their hall marked the observance of the feast of St. Anthony by the members of San Antonio de Padua society yesterday. The weather was ideal for such a celebration and the men arrived in their full regalia made a splendid showing, while they marched from their hall in Summer street to St. Peter's church in Gorham street.

The parade was held at 10 o'clock with Vincent Marotta acting as chief marshal. The members of the society assembled at their hall at 122 Summer street at 10 o'clock and while they were getting ready for the formal march command, the Mazzini band of Lawrence rendered selections.

The city and the Nashoba Construction Co. are at odds over an interpretation of a section of the contract to furnish insulation, paving material and a ready work on West Sixth street did not begin today as had been planned. Until this controversy is settled, work through the office of the city engineer, the asphaltic concrete work will be delayed.

The controversy is not deemed particularly serious and no great delay is anticipated.

The city department still finds itself considerably behind in its schedule, owing to lack of paving. To date more than $600,000 has been laid during the 18 years allotted for in the contract at this date, with 2172 square yards of reinforced concrete being laid, however, the schedule for this type of paving is being exceeded.

The department expects to complete the paving of the entire area, between Pine and Parker, by Wednesday of this week, after Engineer Keenan and today.

The public service board will meet Tuesday noon to open bids on the reconstruction of the Aiken street bridge over the Northern canal.

TARGET PRACTICE AT THE DRACUT RANGE

The destructive energies of the machine gun were demonstrated on the government range at Dracut over the weekend, when members of Company B, 12th Field Artillery, down a hill three times in practice with 500 pounds of ammunition at the gunners' distance. The test was repeated on the ground as though it had been dealt with an axe, by a skilled woodcutter.

Captain George C. Clegg and Lieutenant James F. Tontiotti directed a party of 50 members of the organization in target practice with revolvers, rifles and the destructive machine guns. Good records were made by the men who are practicing to enter the national competition to be held at Camp Devens in connection with the summer encampment of the regiment.

PAYMENT OF 1921 REAL ESTATE TAXES

Payment of 1921 real estate taxes levied on the public sale on July 1 is coming in at the office of the city treasurer much slower than usual and it is expected that more than 100 parcels will come under the auctioneer's hammer on the date of sale.

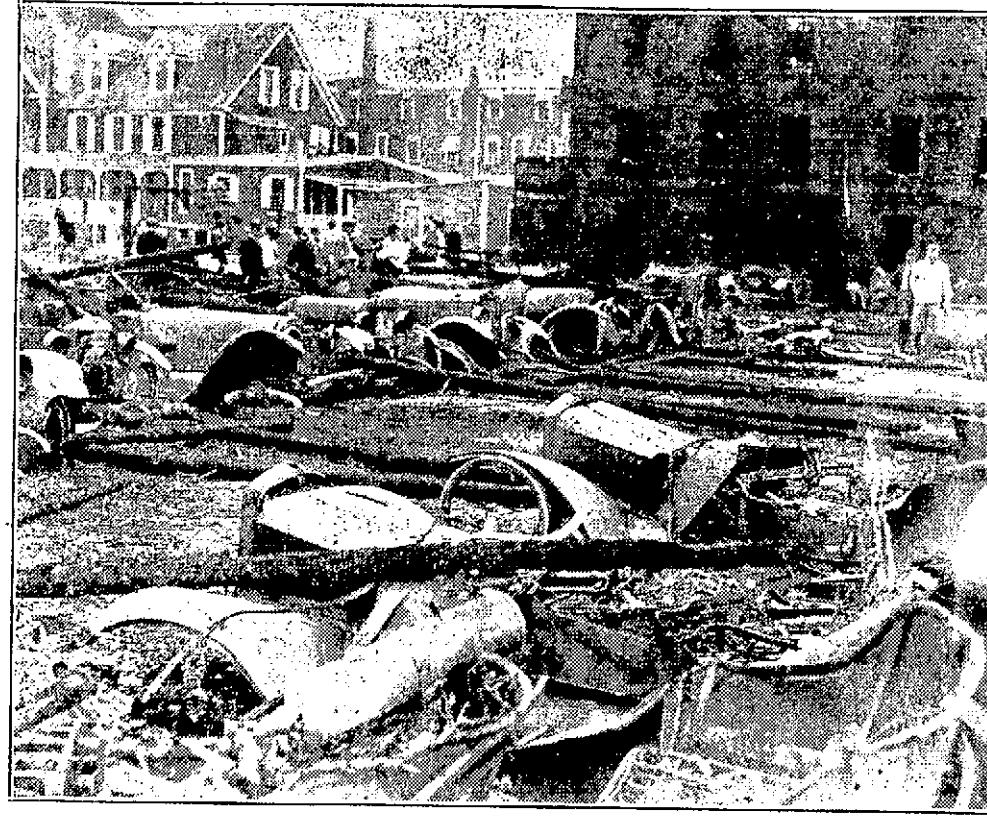

With the delinquent list was first published on June 11, 150 parcels of property were included in it. Since that time two additional advertisements have appeared in local papers, but less than 100 delinquent bills have paid this date.

The closing was work. Marking of the call money bills to a par value, resulting in an increased volume of offerings in the late readings, was again taking place the last.

Fire Causes $80,000 Loss at Hampton Beach--Lowell Man Loses Auto

GARAGE RUINS AND WRECKED AUTOS

HAMPTON BEACH, N. H., June 25.—A garage housing 22 automobiles, the Wilbert hotel and two cottages were destroyed, while two other cottages were hardly scorched by fire at Hampton Beach early yesterday. It was the fourth serious conflagration at the popular summer resort in a decade and resulted in property damage to the amount of $50,000.

Joseph S. Baker of 305 Appleton street, Lowell, whose automobile was burned, was the only loser from that fire.

Fire apparatus from six cities and towns fought successfully to prevent the fire from spreading to the business section of the beach, one block of which was in close proximity. The burned area was one block south of that which was wiped out in the fire of Sept. 23, 1915, and June 26, 1921, exactly two years ago yesterday. At that time fire destroyed seven hotels, 12 cottages, a large business block, theatre, dance hall, garage, two apartment houses and many stores.

Yesterday's fire started in the garage at the foot of C street owned by Mrs. Laura M. Bristol. It was discovered shortly after 2:30 a. m. The blaze quickly spread to the Wilbert hotel and crossed over to Marsh avenue and destroyed two cottages there, also owned by Mrs. Bristol.

The Wilbert is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Miller and in the house at the time were 10 guests who were forced to grab personal belongings and flee in their sleeping garments.

It was impossible to save any of the 22 automobiles stored in the Bristol garage and all were burned where they stood. The night watchman broke through a window to escape the flames, which were aided in their spread by a series of minor gasoline explosions.

BURDENED WITH A HEAVY HEART

President Harding in Grief Over Yesterday's Auto Tragedy in Denver

But He is Compelled by Lack of Time to Continue on His Scheduled Route

DENVER, Colo., June 25.—(By the Associated Press)—Stranded with grief over yesterday's tragic which resulted in the death of one member of his party, severed the 1,360 cord of Denver host and ended with two persons identified with his visit here in a hospital suffering from injuries. President Harding today faced his program with a heavy heart but compelled by the necessary and lack of additional time, to carry on as the original plans for his stay required. These included a parade through the city, a greeting of school children at the state house, a formal address at the auditorium and a visit to Cheyenne, Wyo., later in the day where another address was to be delivered.

Before commencing the day's duties, however, the chief executive obtained reports from the hospital as to the condition of Donald A. Craig, manager of the New York Herald's Washington bureau, and of Thomas F. Dawson of Denver, both of whom were injured when the automobile in which they were riding yesterday, plunged over a 75 foot embankment and killed. Summer Curtis of Washington, D. C., a representative of the republican national committee, and Tommie French of Denver, who was driving the machine as host to the visitors of the presidential party, Mr. Curtis and Mr. Craig were members of the party and personal friends of Mr. Dawson.

President Harding was encouraged by the reports he received and instructed the hospital authorities to keep him advised concerning the condition of Mr. Craig and Mr. Dawson as he continued his tour to Cheyenne, Salt Lake, Utah, and other points along the route to Alaska. There was some indication that a change would be made in the program beginning after the Cheyenne visit and that the proposed trip into Zion Park, Utah, would be abandoned, the party motorizing from Ogden to Salt Lake.

Henry C. Wallace, secretary of agriculture, joined the party in Denver, and will go through the Alaskan itinerary with the president.

GAVE INTERESTING LECTURE ON "ARCADIA"

Milton Bellefontaine, a retired business man of this city, entertained a large audience at the Centralville Social club yesterday afternoon with a lecture on "Arcadia." The audience was composed of members of the Arcadian society, all of whom are Arcadians, and all listened attentively to the talk, which proved most interesting.

Mr. Bellefontaine, who is a native of Arcadia, and who has made several voyages to France, where his people originated, proved to be well versed on his topic. He reviewed the history of the Arcadians from their beginning of prominence in France up to the present date, telling of their exile from France by the British and their landing in what is now known as New Brunswick, Canada. Mr. Bellefontaine was introduced to his audience by Pierre Lépine, president general of l'Assomption society.

CAR CRASHED INTO TREE

A large touring car of Vermont recently collided with a telegraph pole near the old Bridges' place in Tewksbury late last night and was badly damaged. Officer Kelley of the Tewksbury police force was notified of the accident and when he arrived on the scene there was no one to get the owner's name and while looking over the car a tow car arrived from Hoover's Highland garage and towed the damaged car to Lowell. At Hoover's garage today they were unable to give the name of the owner of the machine, but said that at the time of the accident, two machines, one driven by a Mr. Peterson of Maine and the other the damaged car, were coming towards Lowell when the driver of the first car became blinded by a

Third Generation is Using Syrup Pepin

No other Laxative can replace Dr. Caldwell's in the confidence of those who use it.

ANY FAMILY MAY TRY IT FREE
Thousands of parents are asking themselves, "Where can I find a trustworthy laxative that anyone in the family can use, even, constitutional? I will gladly provide a liberal free sample bottle, sufficient for an adequate test. Write me where to send it. Address Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 315 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois. Do it now!"

THERE are thousands of healthy, robust young men and women who have never in all their lives taken any other laxative for constipation than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepin. Their parents were given it by their parents; the grandparents are using it today. It is the one laxative ideally suited to all the family, safe for the little ones, effective in grownups, so compounded that elderly people, who are constantly forced to take a laxative because the intestinal muscles are weakening, find increased dosage unnecessary. This wonderful constipation remedy has been used continuously for 30 years, and over 10 million bottles are now sold annually, the largest selling family laxative in the world. The cost averages but a cent a dose. Every druggist sells it, and under a guarantee to do as claimed or your money will be refunded.

TAKE DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN
The family laxative

Mr. J. B. Belk of Shaw, Miss., relies on it entirely to keep his children in health and Mrs. Catherine Connolly of Jersey City, N. J., declares that not only herself but all her neighbors and friends use it and tell others about it. There is scarcely a day that someone in a family does not need it for constipation, flatulence, auto-intoxication, biliousness, intestinal poisoning, headaches, colic and cramps, and to break up fevers and colds.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepin is a scientifically-balanced compound of Egyptian senna with pepsin and pleasant-tasting aromatics. The formula is on the package. As the popularity of this natural vegetable laxative increases, the public discards the harsher physics like calomel, coal-tar in candy form, salt waters and powders. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepin empties the bowels more cleanly and without any danger.

ODD FELLOWS HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICES

Impressiveness and solemnity marked the annual memorial services of the Lowell lodges of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows (Manchester Unity) held at St. Anne's church last evening, in honor of brethren who died during the past year, a large representation from Integrity 6630, Weymouth 7102, Merrimack 7186, and Exeter 6102, lodges marched from the parish house at 7:30, and into the church, where the services were held.

Pastor Rev. Appleton Grannell preached a short sermon, selecting the parable of the good Samaritan as his theme, and applying it to fraternal life, following selections by the choir. The speaker's remarks in brief were, high praise for the Odd Fellows, their organization and their work in community life, which had done much to promote a spirit of friendliness. The holding of the annual memorial service to departed brethren was cited as one of the organization's good deeds. "The selfish, narrow man is not enjoying the good things of life," said the pastor, "and for that you dislike him. The good Samaritan is liked for his goodness and his brotherly feeling. Sixth Straight Victory for McGraw's Clan Yesterday—Luque's Winning Streak of Seven Games Broken by Cubs—Athletics Pass Up Chance to Close up on Yanks—White Sox Win in Ninth Inning Rally

NEW YORK, June 25.—Back to a margin in first place come the New York Giants. They won their 10th consecutive game yesterday, 6-3, making it three straight from the Braves. Previously they had won three straight from St. Louis. Pittsburgh also won over St. Louis, 6-6, but it seems as though the Pirates are getting farther from the leadership by presenting Washington with an 8-6 victory.

Sherry Smith, former Brooklyn star, kept "coming back" for Cleveland, beating St. Louis, 8-2, while another veteran, Davis of Detroit, blew up in the ninth after he had his game won, let in six runs and lost to Chicago, 9 to 8.

took first and second net at Mt. Pleasant in the Gilligan shield competition with E. W. Douglass, Jr. and P. E. Abbott writing the gross awards. Farnar's handicap of 36 strokes reduced a gross of 162 to 123 and he may expect a substantial cut of this week. When men with handicaps of 30, 21, 25 and 22 strokes can register a sportive score of 20, 36, 35 and 36 there is something radically wrong with the handicap at Mt. Pleasant. Alex Hobson, professional, broke the course record yesterday when he turned in 34-33-60.

Jack Daw's Adventures. Chapter 8

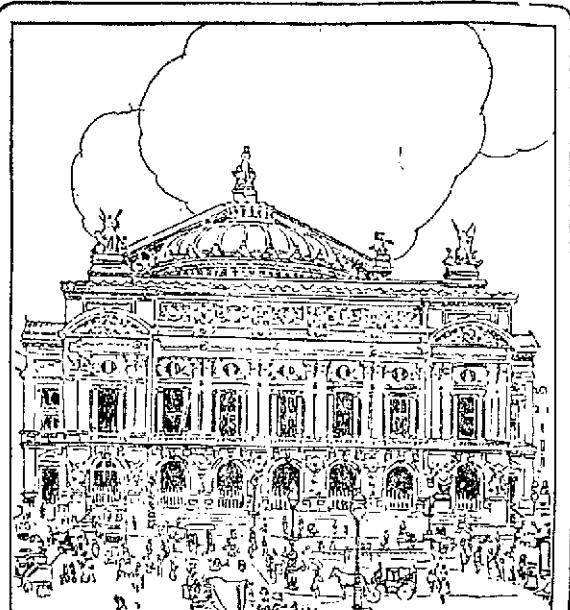

"Everything will be all right if you keep away from my father, the bad giant," said Trixie. Then she took Jack to the foot of a long vine ladder and told him to climb up. "At the top you will find a big basket," she explained. "When you crawl into it I'll swing you over to the woods."

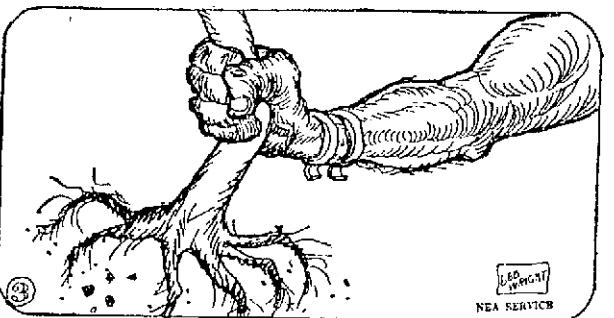

Jack soon reached the basket and climbed in. He looked far down below and saw Flip, Trixie, Hoppy, the kangaroo, and the leopard pussy cat looking up at him. "Hang on tight," shouted Trixie. And then Jack went flying through the air in this basket which was tied to a large vine.

Olive Roberts Barton

GOOD-BYE TO RAGST LAND

IN HER HAND SHE HELD A LETTER

The Twins helped the Raggies all day, so please return as soon as possible. nice little fellows that they are.

Yours lovingly,
THE FAIRY QUEEN.

Mister Tatters still wore his old overalls and all the queer little Raggies were still queer, ragged, little clothes. They never once put on the nice clothes Nancy had made for them. They had them put away in their best bureau drawers in their funny little houses under the ground.

But one day something happened.

There was a knock on the outside door of Ragst Land and when Nick went up the maple steps to see who was there, Nimble Toes, the Fairy Queen's messenger, ran lightly down.

"A letter from Her Royal Highness to the Twins," she announced, making a fine bow and handing the letter to Nancy.

Nancy opened it and read it out loud.

"Dear Children," it said.

"If you are all through helping the Raggies, will you please come back to my Palace? I have an errand for you to do in Choo-Choo."

Dream Brings Rotary to 26 Countries

By N.E.A. Service

ST. LOUIS, June 25.—A Chicago lawyer, with humanitarian impulses, called three of his friends into conference with him at his office one winter night.

Before them he unfolded a vision that haunted him night and day, a vision of a happier and better world.

People he told them, needed some doctrine of service, making dynamic the static ethical principle of the golden rule.

Who help him draft such a philosophy? Why not those themselves who abide by it in their different works of life?

Would they help him? They did. One of the three was a coal dealer, another a mining operator, and the third, a merchant tailor.

That was 18 years ago—Feb. 22, 1905. The men went out and interested others in their creed.

And that was the beginning of Rotary.

Idea Spreads

They called it "Rotary" because in those early days members met in rotation in their offices and shops.

Three years later the idea spread to San Francisco. Then the germ descended in other parts of the country.

Anton Verlaak, president, Rotaract Club, Amsterdam, Holland; Robert Patterson, Dayton, O., vice president, Rotary International, and former Premier Arthur Meighen of Canada.

And today it's Rotary International. It's the organization with which all Rotary clubs throughout the world affiliate. It's an organization of 1120 subsidiary clubs with approximately 90,000 members in 26 countries.

Delegates from all these nations are gathering in St. Louis for their annual world meeting, June 1-22. From all parts of the globe they're coming.

The lawyer-founder of Rotary is

WAGE INCREASE
IN HAVERHILLApproximately 1000 Girl Employees in Shoe Factories to BenefitAdvance, Which is Voluntary,
Will Amount to About One Dollar Per Week

HAVERHILL, June 25.—A voluntary wage increase was granted today by the Haverhill Shoe Manufacturers' association to the women packers. Approximately 1000 girls benefit by the advance which is $1 a week, effective the first working week in July. The present wage is $10 and $11.50. The operations affected are darning-in, dressing, trimming, stitching, embossing, stamping and mending.

The increase was effected at a conference today between price committees of the Manufacturers' association and the Shoe Workers Protective Union. The agreement existing between the two organizations specifies that "there shall be no reduction in wages" but the manufacturers agreed to open the agreement for a readjustment in this instance. The increase will be effective in every factory in the city. Inasmuch as the factories outside the association have agreed to abide by the price paid in the association plants.

Judge Enright Says Police
Are Servants of the People

court wishing time to give the matter serious consideration.

"This has been a very hard case for me to get out," said the judge in opening his argument. "Here was a family violating their rights, breaking no laws, and interfering with no one. There was one torment over another. There in the lower a search warrant was made for liquor. The officers found none, but they did find a suspicious bag that led into the secret of the torment upstairs."

Defender Albrecht in his quest went upstairs and his story is that he was set upon immediately by the Shannahan man and Officer Custer knocked down. Now there are no doubts here. There is a complaint for assault on officer Albrecht against John Karsak. As he is the owner of the building, I don't see any evidence of the assault. The next charge is against five people for assaulting officer Karsak. There is no evidence to sustain this assault other than against for the alleged assault on officer Bagley. When Officer Custer stood in the doorway in response to a call, he was struck down by a policeman. He didn't know exactly who it was. Officer Albrecht said it was a young man, who had previously struck him and went to the aid of his master as the latter was grappling with officer Albrecht.

I am satisfied that there is a great deal of truth in the woman's story that we see went to her assistance. The boy, in this country, but a few weeks, did not know the men were officers. But the question is, did he or did he not use undue force. I'm afraid he did and hence he is to stand guilty. There is a lot to be said to that boy. He saw his mother being held by another and naturally went to aid her, as any boy would do, and I don't feel much nervous for dealing with him as far as I would under different circumstances.

Concerning the assault on officer Bagley, the woman was in a fever. I am satisfied that the woman struck officer Bagley, but it was a case where any reasonable would resist intrusion. "I want to say to the officers that they must understand they are never the masters of the people. So when I warrant or no search warrant, they must not use unnecessary force. I do not know that they did use unnecessary force, but they are the servants of the people and had absolutely no right to that torment."

The following dispositions were then made: John Karsak and Eva Karsak, no guilty; Joseph Shannahan, for assault on officer Albrecht, fined $10, and for assault on officer Bagley, fined $10; Eva Shannahan, for assault on officer Bagley, fined $10; John Karsak, for assault on officer Bagley, fined $10.
